

Strategy scaled for a vast country

The mission of the Russian Railways Group is to effectively develop a transportation business that is competitive on the Russian and international markets and focuses on effectively meeting its objectives as a national freight and passenger carrier and owner of public railway infrastructure.